All shares issued in violation of:

- (1) this section; or
 - (2) any rule adopted by a licensing authority as provided by this section;
- are void.

Sec. 3. (a) Whenever:

- (1) a shareholder of a professional corporation dies;

the shares of the deceased shareholder or disqualified person may be transferred to a qualified person. If the shares are not so transferred, the shares shall be purchased or redeemed by the corporation to the extent of funds that may legally be made available for the purchase, as provided in section 2 of this chapter.

(b) Within five (5) months after such death or thirty (30) days after such a disqualification or transfer, if the price and method of payment for such shares is not fixed or ascertainable by the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation or by private agreement, the corporation shall make a written offer to pay for the shares at a specified price determined by the corporation to be the fair value of the shares as of the date of the death, disqualification, or transfer. The offer:

- (1) shall be given to the disqualified person, which, in the case of a deceased shareholder, is the executor, administrator, or heirs at law if there is no executor or administrator; and
- (2) must be accompanied by:

(A) a balance sheet of the corporation, as of the latest available date and not more than twelve (12) months before the making of the offer; and

(B) an income statement of the corporation for the twelve (12) month period ending on the date of the balance sheet.

(c) If the fair value of the shares is agreed upon between the disqualified person and the corporation within thirty (30) days after the date of the written offer from the corporation, payment for the shares shall be made upon surrender of the certificate or certificates representing the shares:

- (1) within sixty (60) days after the date of the offer; or
- (2) at such other time as the parties may fix by agreement.

Upon payment of the agreed value, the disqualified person ceases to have any interest in the shares.

(d) If the disqualified person and the corporation do not agree on the fair value of the shares within thirty (30) days after the corporation's written offer, the following procedures apply:

- (1) The disqualified person may make written demand within sixty (60) days after the date of the corporation's written offer that the corporation file a petition in the circuit or superior court in the county where the principal office of the corporation is located, requesting that the fair value of the shares be determined. The corporation shall file a petition under this subdivision within thirty (30) days after receipt of written demand from the disqualified person. If the corporation fails to institute the proceeding as required by this subdivision, the disqualified person may do so within sixty (60) days after delivery of the written demand to the corporation.
- (2) If the corporation so elects at any time within sixty (60) days after the date of the corporation's written offer, it may file a petition for the determination of the fair value of the shares in the circuit or superior court in the county where the principal office of the corporation is located.

(3) The disqualified person shall be made a party to any proceeding under this subsection.

(4) All proceedings instituted under this subsection shall be governed by the Indiana rules of trial procedure.

(5) In a proceeding under this subsection, the court may appoint one (1) or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and make a recommendation to the court on the question of the fair value of the shares. The appraisers have such authority as shall be specified in the appointment order of the court.

(e) In a proceeding under subsection (d), the disqualified person is entitled to judgment against the corporation for the amount of the fair value of his shares as of the date of death, disqualification, or transfer, upon surrender to the corporation of the certificate or certificates representing the shares. The court may order that the judgment be paid by the corporation in such installments as the court determines to be fair and just. The judgment may include an allowance for interest, not to exceed the legal rate of interest for judgments specified in IC 24-4.6-1-101, from the date of death, disqualification, or transfer.

(f) Except as provided in this subsection, the costs and expenses of any proceeding under subsection (d) shall be determined by the court and shall be assessed against the corporation. If the fair value of the shares as determined by the court does not exceed the amount specified in the last written offer made by the corporation, the court may assess all or any part of the costs and expenses of the proceeding against the disqualified person. For purposes of this subsection, expenses include:

- (1) reasonable compensation for and reasonable expenses of the appraisers; and
- (2) reasonable fees and expenses of counsel.

(g) If a purchase, redemption, or transfer of the shares of a deceased or disqualified shareholder or of a transferee who is a disqualified person is not completed within ten (10) months after the death of the deceased shareholder or within five (5) months after the disqualification or transfer, the corporation shall immediately cancel the shares on its books, and the disqualified person as of the date of cancellation has no further interest as a shareholder in the corporation other than his right to payment for such shares under this section. A corporation may not cancel its shares if a petition for a determination of fair value has been filed under this section in a circuit or superior court.

(h) Shares acquired by a corporation:

- (1) in payment of the agreed value for the shares; or
- (2) in payment of a judgment entered for the payment of those shares, as provided in this section;

may be held and disposed of by the corporation as in the case of other treasury shares.

(i) Any provision regarding purchase, redemption, or transfer of shares of a professional corporation contained in the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or any private agreement is specifically enforceable in the courts of this state.

(j) This section does not prevent or relieve a professional corporation from paying pension benefits or other deferred compensation for services rendered to or on behalf of a former shareholder as otherwise permitted by law.

 - (3) may consolidate, where feasible, office space, record keeping, and data processing services.
- (c) In administering the renewal of licenses or certificates under this chapter, the licensing agency shall issue a sixty (60) day notice of expiration to all holders of a license or certificate. The notice must inform the holder of a license or certificate of the requirements to:
 - (1) renew the license or certificate; and
 - (2) pay the renewal fee.
- (d) If the licensing agency fails to send notice of expiration under subsection (c), the holder of the license or certificate is not subject to a sanction for failure to renew if the holder renews the license or certificate not more than forty-five (45) days after the holder receives the notice from the licensing agency.
- (e) The licensing agency may require an applicant for a license or certificate renewal to submit evidence showing that the applicant:
 - (1) meets the minimum requirements for licensure or certification; and

- (f) The licensing agency may delay renewing a license or certificate for not more than ninety (90) days after the renewal date to permit the board to investigate information received by the licensing agency that the applicant for renewal may have committed an act for which the applicant may be disciplined. If the licensing agency delays renewing a license or certificate, the licensing agency shall notify the applicant that the applicant is being investigated. Except as provided in subsection (g), the board shall do one (1) of the following before the expiration of the ninety (90) day period:

If the office of the attorney general files a petition, the board shall set the matter for a public hearing. If, after a public hearing, the board finds the applicant violated IC 25-1-11-5, the board may impose sanctions under IC 25-1-11-12. The board may delay renewing a license or certificate beyond ninety (90) days after the renewal date until a final

 - (j) Notwithstanding any other law, the licensing agency may stagger license or certificate renewal cycles.
 - (k) An application for a license or certificate is abandoned without an action by the board if the applicant does not complete the requirements for obtaining the license or certificate not more than one (1) year after the date on which the application was filed. However, the board may, for good cause shown, extend the validity of the application for additional thirty (30) day periods. Sec. 19. (a) The candidate must attain the uniform passing grade of seventy-five (75), scaled through a psychometrically acceptable standard setting procedure and approved by the board.

(b) A candidate may take the required test sections individually and in any order. Credit for any test section passed shall be valid for eighteen (18) months from the actual date the candidate took that test section provided the following:

(1) Candidates must pass all four (4) test sections of the Uniform CPA examination within a rolling eighteen (18) month period, which begins on the date that the first test section passed is taken.

(2) Candidates cannot retake a failed test section in the same testing window.

(3) In the event all four (4) test sections of the Uniform CPA examination are not passed within the rolling eighteen (18) month period, credit for any test section passed more than eighteen (18) months previously will expire and that test section must be retaken.

Paper and Pencil Examination Computer-Based Examination

(2) If a previously conditioned candidate does not pass all remaining test sections during the transition period, conditional credits earned under the paper and pencil examination will expire and the candidate will lose credit for the test sections earned under the paper and pencil examination. However, any test section passed during the transition period is subject to the conditioning provisions of the computer-based examination as provided for in subsection (c), except that a previously conditioned candidate will not lose conditional credit for a test section of the computer-based examination that is passed during the transition period, even though more than eighteen (18) months may have elapsed from the date the test section is passed, until the end of the transition period.

Authority: IC 25-2.1

The notification to the board from the administering entity, a copy of which shall be sent to the firm, shall include the name of the firm and the peer review report and the correction action, as appropriate, and a discussion memorandum addressing the dispute. The board shall:

- (1) set the matter for an informal hearing;
